

Kentucky State Meeting
Thursday, March 2, 2017
Chattanooga Convention Center (Chattanooga, TN)

- 1) Call to Order – 4:46 PM (EST)
- 2) Roll Call of Institutions Present
  - a) Bellarmine University
  - b) Berea College
  - c) Centre College
  - d) Eastern Kentucky University
  - e) Georgetown College
  - f) Lindsey Wilson College
  - g) Midway University
  - h) Morehead State University
  - i) Murray State University
  - j) Spalding University
  - k) Transylvania University
  - l) University of Kentucky
  - m) University of Louisville
  - n) Western Kentucky University
- 3) Approval of Kentucky State Meeting Minutes (2/25/2016)
  - a) Motion by Western Kentucky University, seconded by Murray State University
  - b) Minutes approved
- 4) Governing Council Reports
  - a) President – Chris Owens
    - i) State Social – Governing Council decided not to host state social, as has been done at previous conferences, to allow conference attendees to socialize with delegates
    - ii) Parliamentary Procedures
      - (1) Currently, Colonial takes on responsibility for Parliamentarian when needed
      - (2) Will be exploring best means to manage parliamentary procedure responsibilities for future business meetings
  - b) President-Elect – Leslie Maxie-Ashford
    - i) Been working with Christina Reyes for SEAHO State Representative transition
    - ii) Been having regular meetings with Berea College Conference Committee team
    - iii) Programming and Awards Committees – will be having a call out for members; please contact Leslie if interested
  - c) Colonial – Ann Young
    - i) Please contact if there anything she can do to help
  - d) Secretary/Treasurer – John Michael Haky
    - i) Updated Account Balance: $3,666.34
      - (1) Received from 2016 Conference: $2,091.04 ($970 from fees; $621.04 revenue; $500 SEAHO Corporate Scholarships)
      - (2) SEAHO Corporate scholarships were not used, so allocated funding distributed to KAHO account
    - ii) Historical Records update

- iii) Organization historical information has been added to the website, including previous award winners and meeting minutes
        - (1) Seeking more records, including previous meeting minutes, pictures of conference SWAG, previous conference reports, and records of previous award winners; please send information to John
    - e) SEAHO State Representative – Christina Reyes
      - i) Position Timeline Alignment – will be reviewing SEAHO State Representative position length of service and responsibilities to align with SEAHO expectations
      - ii) SEAHO Service Awards
        - (1) Ashley Hill, Transylvania University
        - (2) John Michael Haky, Morehead State University
        - (3) Brian Shelangoski, University of Louisville
      - iii) KAHO Listserv
        - (1) To join, create or update profile via SEAHO website to include membership in the KAHO group
      - iv) SEAHO Report
        - (1) Next deadline for submissions is March 28, 2017
        - (2) Would like to see more Kentucky involvement
      - v) RELI
        - (1) RELI Participant Deadlines – application deadline is March 17, 2017 (please encourage individuals to apply if interested)
        - (2) RELI Faculty Recognition – Hannah Piechowski (Transylvania University) and Anthony White (Eastern Kentucky University)
    - f) Small School Representative – LaRon Collier
      - i) Will be connecting with Small Schools to determine how schools can be represented
      - ii) Survey will be going out soon
    - g) Graduate Student Representative – Justavian Tillman
      - i) Currently seeking ideas for topics for the Case Study Competition at the next conference
- 5) School Reports
- a) Bellarmine University – recently named a new President; will be hiring for a new full-time Residence Life Coordinator for the fall; currently hiring for a part-time position; recently completed student staff selection
  - b) Berea College – construction being completed and new building will be coming on-line; co-hosting Kentucky Association of Blacks in Higher Education conference (March 30 – April 1) with Eastern Kentucky University
  - c) Eastern Kentucky University – currently hiring for 4 graduate and 3 full-time positions; will be opening 2 new halls; soon opening or re-opening new dining hall, student center and recreation facility; co-hosting KABHE conference with Berea College
  - d) Georgetown College – celebrating having a full residence life staff; had largest freshman class in years; will be having a Diversity & Inclusion position open for applications
  - e) Lindsey Wilson College – currently maintaining goodness; potential full-time openings in the future
  - f) Midway University – starting enrolling men this academic year; new Director and Assistant Director in housing; currently looking to re-establish what Midway looks like; men’s sports teams are doing well
  - g) Morehead State University – officially opened new residence hall in November; recently hired full-time Hall Director for fall; recently hired ACUHO-I Intern for Summer
  - h) Murray State University – No Report

- i) Spalding University – school leadership is behind importance of on-campus living experience; recently implemented live-on requirement; first-year students live in single hall
- j) Transylvania University – moved residents into 2 new halls in January and subsequently closed 2 halls; recent changes include addition of a new Director and current Assistant Director transitioning to another role on campus
- k) University of Kentucky – recent creation of Division of Student & Academic Life; currently exploring Residence Life's place in campus structure; Student Center currently under construction should open in 2018; last of 2 new halls will open in the fall, including apartment and graduate housing; adding LLPs for Cats for Recovery and International Village; completing hiring for RAs, 3 new graduate HD, 5 professional RD, and Area Coordinator positions
- l) University of Louisville – completing RA selection, including introducing Senior RA position; will be adding ~2,000 beds to system; will be positing new positions soon; student activities center under construction
- m) Western Kentucky University – new Director/AVP-SA; Dr. Golston recently left for another position, so conduct position will be opening soon; recently broke ground on new hall
- n) Centre College – record enrollment; currently renovating spaces for additional occupancy; recently opened new soccer complex; completing RA selection; Director of Residence Life and Director of Greek Life & Orientation openings accepting applications

6) Old Business

a) Branding Survey Updates

- i) Overall response indicated that members like the logo and can access website resources
- ii) Respondents indicated that there was a lack of understanding of the KAHO Chronicle blog
  - (1) KAHO newsletter that was recently transitioned to a blog format to allow for regular and easy contribution and updating
- iii) Will be consulting marketing professionals from around the state to determine ways that the logo can be made more accessible and user-friendly
- iv) Will be exploring ways to better use the Chronicle blog

b) Professional Development Committee – updates to be provided at a later time

7) New Business

a) KAHO 2017 Annual Conference (Alicia Klopfer, Berea College)

- i) Theme: Moving Mountains – The Challenge of Change
- ii) October 4-6, 2017
- iii) Rates are $65 for professionals and graduate students and $30 for undergraduate students
- iv) Website will be launching on March 15, 2017
- v) Registration will open on March 22, 2017
- vi) Program submissions will open May, 15, 2017
  - (1) Program areas – Community Engagement, Professional Development, Social Justice/Diversity & Inclusion, Strategic Planning & Partnerships, Student Conduct, and Trends & Best Practices
- vii) Accommodations – Historic Boone Tavern
  - (1) Other hotels will be available; fair prices are currently being negotiated

b) KARH 2017 Conference Updates

- i) Successful annual conference was held February 10-12, 2017 at Bellarmine University
- ii) New State Board was elected

- iii) Individual and School awards were presented
- iv) No bids were received to host KARH 2018 conference
  - (1) Schools interested in hosting can contact John Michael Haky, KARH Advisor
- c) ART Drive-In Conference
  - i) KARH and SAACURH Advisors currently working to organize drive-in conference so individuals could complete NACURH Advisor Resource Training (ART) Level One trainings
  - ii) Session facilitators, host site, drive-in date, and other details currently being finalized
- 8) Discussion
  - a) KAHO Relationship with KARH and helping KARH
    - i) Recently, NACURH voted to de-affiliate with state organizations
      - (1) Potential liability with non-NACURH or Regional Organization affiliated individuals attending those conferences as state representatives
    - ii) State support will important as KARH evaluates best structure for future success
    - iii) KARH Advisor currently developing documents to assist with annual conference expectations and planning
    - iv) SACUURH currently exploring means to use state associations
- 9) Announcements
  - a) Approval of KAHO Business Meeting Minutes (10/7/2016) will occur at KAHO 2017 Business Meeting
    - i) <https://kyhousing.files.wordpress.com/2016/12/kaho-state-business-meeting-2016-10-07-minutes.pdf>
- 10) Adjourn – 5:38 PM (EST)