Kentucky Association of Housing Officers

Benjamin Dunn Small School Representative

Benjamin Dunn is a Student Life Team Member at Berea College. In this role he works on a variety of teams including Judicial, Sustainability, Training and Development, Branding, Student Academic Intervention, Policy and Procedure, and oversees the Chimes Yearbook staff. Additionally, Benjamin oversees two resident halls including the certified LEED Platinum Deep Green Residence Hall which ranks among the top residence halls in the World for sustainability.

A native of Kentucky, Benjamin takes pride in being from the Bluegrass and being able to serve students in capacity that fosters their growth both as academic leaders and productive servant leaders in their community. Before Berea, Benjamin also served as an Academic Advisor for Bluegrass Community and Technical College and Northern Kentucky University and as a Graduate Assistant for Fraternity & Sorority Life at Eastern Kentucky University.

Benjamin is excited about being the Small School Representative for KAHO because it will allow him to foster a personal relationship with each small school in Kentucky and will allow for each of these schools to continue working together to troubleshoot common adversities.

Benjamin received both his Bachelor of Arts in History and his Masters of Arts in Student Personnel Services in Higher Education from Eastern Kentucky University. In his spare time, Benjamin enjoys painting, listening to music, and advising various chapters of his fraternity throughout the state of Kentucky. In addition to advising, Benjamin also holds state and regional positions within Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.
