

Kentucky Association of Housing Officers Governing Council

Kentucky Association of Housing Officers

Leslie M. Maxie
Colonel

Leslie M. Maxie is the Associate Dean of Students and Director of Housing and Residence Life at Bellarmine University. In this position, she provides supervision, direction and overall management for the department, housing over 1100 students in eight halls. Leslie also coordinates and implements a variety of programs and services designed to ensure students' developmental and academic success which includes sitting on the University's Care Team.

Leslie has been active for almost 20 years in state and regional professional organizations for Student Affairs Administrators. Leslie has served as President of the Kentucky Association of Housing Officers, the President of the College Personnel Association of Kentucky, Small School Representative for the Kentucky Association of Housing Officers, chairwoman for numerous professional and student conferences, 2012 Co-Chair of Conference Headquarters for the American College Personnel Association and Co-Chair of Local Arrangements for SEAHO 2020.

Leslie received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and a Masters of Education from the University of Louisville. Leslie is also a Bellarmine alumna, graduating from the Masters in Spirituality program. Currently, Leslie is a doctoral candidate in Bellarmine's Leadership in Higher Education program.