Kentucky Association of Housing Officers

Casey Quickel Secretary & Treasurer

Casey is originally from Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Casey attended Shippensburg University where she graduated with her B.A. in Human Communication Studies, and a minor in Political Science. Casey then took a gap year to do some soul searching, and ended up working at Harley Davidson selling motorcycles, and at a Hampton working front desk and cleaning rooms (tip your housekeepers). She then went to Salisbury University in Maryland where she earned her Master's in Higher Education Administration. Casey then worked at the University of Houston, and ended up in Kentucky in 2015.

Casey started her journey at University of Kentucky as an Area Coordinator, and just recently was offered and accepted the Assistant Director of Risk Management, Policy, and Procedure position. When she moved to Kentucky, she planned to stay for three years and then go elsewhere. However, she fell in love with Kentucky. She is hoping to be accepted into a PhD program this upcoming year, so she has committed for quite a bit longer here in Kentucky.

In her spare time, she enjoys reading all the fantasy novels she can get her hands on. She also found an aerial arts community in Lexington that keeps her strong mentally and physically. The things that means the most to her, however, is the volunteer work she does with the Humane Society. She fosters animals, and is always trying to find them good homes. So, if you are in the market for a new fur-baby, or just want to share pictures of your own, she is your gal!
